PARIS MAYOR INDICTED

Grand Jury Returns Bill Against J. T. Hinton for Receiving Corrupting Funds.

ALLEGED DEAL WITH BANK

First National Said to Have Furnished Money to Control City Election.

On the charge that he received money unlawfully for the purpose of influencing an election the Bourbon County Grand Jury sitting at the March term of the Bourbon Circuit Court returned an indictment against Mayor John T. Hinton, of this city, but by order of the court the indictment was withheld from the public until late last week and after bench warrants had been issued and served.

The indictment against Mayor Hinton was the result of the investigation which was in progress at the early session of the grand jury and the probe was made into the alleged election frauds at the instance of Judge Robert L. Stout, who instructed the body to conduct an investigation along these lines with a view of uncovering an alleged scandal referred to in the speech of Hon. J. Campbell Cantrell in his speech here several weeks ago in the interest of his candidacy for Congress.

The indictment of Mayor Hinton grew out of alleged frauds which were said to have been perpetrated in the Third Ward in this city during the election last November when, it is said, Mayor Hinton received from the First National Bank of Paris, the sum of $700 to be used to influence the voters of this ward and bring about the election of Harry Baldwin, a Democrat, over J. W. Larkin, a Republican.

By the terms of the alleged deal entered into by James McClure, cashier of the First National Bank and others and Mayor Hinton, the latter it is claimed agreed to vote his stock in the Agricultural Bank of Paris on the question of merging the two institutions, and consolidate under the First National. According to the rumor which was circulated Mayor Hinton failed to comply with his part of the agreement.

When the Grand Jury met three weeks ago the investigation of the alleged frauds referred to by Judge Stout were overlooked and the matter of probing into the Third Ward election was assumed. James McClure, cashier of the First National, M. R.
Jacoby, Roy Clendenin, Thos. H.
Clay, Jr., Stamps Moore, C. C. Clarke and others were summoned before the body it is said and testified in the case before that body, as being witnesses to the deal made with Mayor Hinton, and upon this evidence the indictment was returned.

The evidence given before the grand jury, it is claimed, was sufficient to indict all parties to the alleged transaction, but from the fact that only one indictment was returned the matter reflects upon the integrity of the grand jury and from an unbiased point of view shows clearly upon the face of the situation that Mayor Hinton was the victim of a conspiracy.

According to the statement of Mayor Hinton made yesterday the only agreement made with the officials of the First National Bank was that he would favor a merger of his stock in the Agricultural Bank provided the men from the First National could show him as they claimed they could that the Agricultural stock would be worth more under such merger than at present, but up to this time this has never been shown nor any attempt made to do so, and that he did not receive the campaign contribution of seven hundred dollars as stated.

ONE WAY OF SAVING A BABY—FREE TO TRY

The mother does not live who would not do all in her power to keep her child healthy, but often she does not know how. So when a doctor of standing points the way all can afford to listen.

It is an accepted fact that nine out of ten of the troubles of infants and children is intestinal. You notice it by the fact that the child is constipated, it belches, is peevish and cries. Don't give a remedy that contains an opiate, because the child will get in the habit of needing it, and don't become alarmed and run at once for a doctor.

Try a scientific laxative first. Give a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the remedy that is intended for the use of children. It is mild, gentle and non-gripping. The remedy is absolutely pure and is guaranteed in every particular. Mrs. Toomey of Emingsville, Pa., and Mrs. Fred Crows of Alanson, Mich., never give their children anything else. These are only a few among thousands of women.

You can buy a fifty cent or one dollar bottle of any nearby druggist, for they have all sold it for a generation, but if you want to test it on your child first send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will cheerfully send you a free sample bottle.

Address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Just Look at This.

Anyone who thinks those millionaire woolen trust magnates at Lawrence, Mass., are increasing the salaries of their men, women and children mill workers out of the generosity of their hearts—and out of their own pocket-books—is mistaken. They are making the American people pay not only the amount of the increased wages, but every penny of the expense of the long strike.

"The people sympathized with the strikers," is the slogan of the mill owners, "now let them shoulder the expense."

Before any wages were increased, the woolen trust magnates, who have been making profits of from 6 to 75 per cent on their investment, decided to advance the cost of clothing. And as a matter of fact the consumers began to actually pay increased prices for woollens and cottons in anticipation of the increased wages to be paid by the woolen trust, before the announcement of the increased wages was made.

Cotton prints, calicos and the like have risen in price at wholesale in New York City a quarter of a cent per yard in the last ten days, and mill agents predict the increase will reach two cents a yard.

This will make a difference of 5 cents in an apron and 25 cents in the housewife's dress. Men's clothing is going up and women's and children's dress goods are declared to be the next in line. The increases, it is estimated, will bring approximately $13,000,000 into the coffers of the woolen trust within a year. Thus an accommodating public will bear the cost of the strike and the increases in wages.

The men who work such games on both public and employees are but a handful in number. They are just a few rich men who own or control the majority of the stock of the woolen trust. It is practically these few men, and they alone, who are the beneficiaries of Schedule K.

Again the query: How long are 92,000,000 American citizens going to stand for a wool tariff which taxes them outrageously on every stitch of clothing they use in order that a few greedy woolen trust magnates may be still further enriched.

PARIS GIRLS CHAMPIONS

High School Team Makes Clean-up of the Games in the Season Just Closed.

VICTORS IN 8 STRUGGLES.

According to "Dope" Southern Championship Rests Upon the Paris Aggregation.

The girls basket ball team of the Paris High School has just closed the season of 1912. The two games which were to have been played with the Mason county High School have been canceled.

Those who availed themselves of the opportunity of witnessing the team play throughout the season as they wrested victory after victory from their less fortunate opponents feel that time can never erase from memory the recollection of how valiantly they fought.

Those who must rely solely upon this review of the season will get but a faint and inadequate idea of what this phenomenal team did or was capable of doing. Full justice and credit would not be rendered the young ladies that make up the team, if the whole account was to be written in capitals, punctuated with exclamation points, with every adjective in the superlative degree.

The first game of the season was with the Richmond High School girls in which Paris won by the score of 44 to 0. This furnished but a slight intimation of what was to follow. The majority of the games could hardly be considered anything more than practice games. Of the list of victories won there are two that deserve special prominence. With reluctance the State University girls agreed to play the Paris High School and then only on condition that the game be played on their own floor. Suffice to say the game was played according to their terms and much to the chagrin of the proud wearers of the blue and white, resulted in a victory for Paris by the score of 14 to 10.

It would not be presumptuous for the team to claim not only the championship of Kentucky but also of the South. According to the available "dope" the championship of the south lay between State University and Transylvania. No game was played between these two teams to decide the championship but Paris defeated State University, who in turn defeated Transylvania. As a fitting climax to the season the Paris team defeated the aggregation from the Lexington High School.

It would indeed be an injustice to attempt to pick from this galaxy of undefeated stars the brightest. The best and fairest way to comment on the team is to consider them as they always played; not individually, but as a whole. The Paris girls know the game from start to finish and generally employed their knowledge to the best advantage. They are all hard, consistent players, the whole team long since learned the difficult and all important art of connecting with the baskets. Their goal shooting was only excelled by their floor work which everyone that ever saw them play will admit was truly remarkable.

Elsa Heller, captain, and Ruth Chambers, the two guards, are largely responsible for their opponents' scores being as small as they were. The goals thrown over them were all deserved. In passing it might be said that none of these girls were born basket ball players. To Prof. Johnson too much credit can not be ascribed. His ability as a coach can best be judged by the record his team has made. The young ladies who enjoy the proud distinction of composing the 1912 team are as follows:

Elsa Heller, captain, and Ruth Chambers, guards; Mary Hayden, center; Olive Taul and Nellie Rummen, forwards; Gertrude Slicer and Jerome Chapman, substitutes. The games played this season are as follows:

Paris 44, Richmond High School 0; Paris 52, Cynthiana High School 1; Paris 14, State University 10; Paris 30, Cynthiana High School 0; Paris 24, Richmond High School 13; Paris 19, Corbin academy 13; Paris 26, Lexington High School 5; Paris 40, Corbin Academy 0. The Paris team made a total of 249 scores to their opponents 42.

HOW BLOOD IS MADE.

The liquids and the digested foods in the alimentary canal pass through the wall of the canal into the blood. This process is called absorption and takes place chiefly from the small intestine. After absorption the blood carries the food through the body, and each cell takes from the blood the food it needs. A pure glyceric extract made from bloodroot, mandrake, stone, queen's root and golden seal and sold by druggists for the past forty years under the name of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, gives uniformly excellent results as a tonic to help in the assimilation of the food and in the absorption by the blood of the food it requires. Eradicate the poisons from the blood with this alternative extract which does not shrink the white blood corpuscles, because containing no alcohol or other injurious ingredients. Thus the body can be built up—strong to resist disease. This is a tonic taken from Nature's garden that builds up those weakened by disease.

Dr. Pierce, founder of the Invalids' Hotel at Buffalo, N.Y., has received many letters similar to the following:

Mr. Fred R. Munro, of Paradise, N. S., writes: "I take great pleasure in writing you as regards my case and its cure. In September I was taken with Typhoid Fever, which put me in a dreadful condition. I was weak, run down, nervous and was reduced to a mere skeleton. I had tried most everything I could get but nothing did me any good until, at last, I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and 'Pleasant Pellets,' which I did. Before I had used one bottle I saw a great improvement and when I had used this treatment two months, using only a few vials of 'Pleasant Pellets,' I returned to perfect health. I cannot find words to express my thankfulness for this wonderful medicine. I advise all sufferers to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, as he cures when others fail."

CHANGE IN GAMBLE'S LUCK

Finds a $5 Bill, Then Two Tens, but the Next Find Is Something Else.

George Gamble struck a streak of luck the other day. Mr. Gamble, incidentally, is manager of the Pere Marquette fast freight line. He walked into a hotel in Kansas, and there, upon the lobby floor, he saw a small green wad. "A $5 bill," marveled Mr.
Gamble when he unrolled it.

A week or so later he ambled into the lobby of another hotel in another state. The first thing his eyes lit upon was a pellet of green near the clerk's desk. Business of making a hurried dive for it and then discovering two $10 bills, packed together.
Mr. Gamble observed that he was sure enough in the middle of the lucky curve. He wondered what he would find next.

He came to town, walked into the Cadillac, and there, in the middle of the lobby floor, appeared that familiar little emerald bulb. Mr. Gamble sidled toward it, trying to look as if he was looking another way. Just at that moment a small dog butted in.
He seized the little green wad and frolicked toward the street. Mr. Gamble abandoned his pretense at indifference and dived for the mutt.
"Grab um," begged Mr. Gamble;
"catch um."

A gentleman standing by the door obliged. He took the little bundle out of the dog's mouth; then he looked up at Mr. Gamble. "This yours?" he asked.

Mr. Gamble thought he would take a chance. "Yep," he said; "it's mine.
I just missed it."

The gentleman handed over the bundle with an odd look at Mr. Gamble, and went away hastily. Mr. Gamble examined it. The wrapper was of soft green paper. It had broken in several places from the dog's teeth.
Inside was a pair of lady's garters.—

ALL ALONE IN THE STORM

Inside, the Merry Country Party Wotted Not of the Forlorn Figure Out in the Cold.

It was bitter cold. The snow fell thickly, and, driven by the wind, it beat relentlessly against the faces of those who were not sheltered. A wild night, indeed. Midwinter, and in the open country, and one of the coldest nights in the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

He stood not far from the winding, snowbound road, his face turned toward the highway. A forlorn object in that great storm.

His old felt hat, jammed roughly on his head, but ill-protected his face and ears from the chilly blasts. He wore no overcoat, only a light and muchfrayed jacket, more fitted, indeed, for summer weather than the zero temperature of that night. His hands were unprotected by gloves, while his trousers, thin and worn, fluttered about his legs. He wore no shoes.

Inside the great farm, close by, the lights blazed merrily, and through the windows, from which the shades were drawn, could be seen many young people passing hither and thither. A merry country party—youth and laughter.

And now through the storm others make their way to the farmhouse.
They are bundled up warm and comfortable, and defy the snow and the cold. They are happy in the anticipation of the joyful evening before them.
Care and worry have no part in their minds.

They do not know that close by stands that ill-clothed figure, with arms stretched appealingly forth, and if they knew there would be no pity in their hearts.

For it was only the old farmer's scarecrow.—William Sanford in Puck.

Flight of a Honey Bee.

George S. Demuth, now with the United States department of agriculture, but until recently at the head of the apary department in the office of the state entomologist, tells in the forthcoming annual report of the apary department, of proof, he has of the great speed attained by honey bees in their flight. Mr. Demuth was shipping some bees from Terre Haute to Indianapolis in a special traction car, when a few of the bees escaped from the boxes in which they were being transported.

"When the bees escaped," said Mr.
Demuth, "I watched their behavior and was surprised to find they had no difficulty in flying out at the open car door and flying ahead of the moving car. The car was going at the rate of 35 or 40 miles an hour. In my opinion, the flight of a honey bee must exceed the speed of the average railway train."

Smoking to Be Stopped.

Statistics gathered through investigation by the authorities of New York city show that 3,245 fires in 1910 and 3,332 in 1911 were caused by the carelessness of smokers, mostly in places of industry. Fire Commissioner Johnson, who has been studying the laws relating to the prevention of fires, as well as to their extinguishment, has discovered a statute which forbids acts which endanger the health or safety of any considerable number of persons, and he is going to attempt to make it applicable to smoking in factories. He has therefore ordered 40-000 notices—printed in English, Yiddish and Italian—prohibiting smoking in factory buildings. These will be universally distributed and followed by vigilant and constant inspection to prevent the violation of his order.

They have a very mild but positive says of "The Girl of My Dreams":

"When a musical comedy comes to Louisville on its third visit and receives the hearty welcome and the genuine applause that marked 'The Girl of My Dreams' at Macauley's last night, it is convincing proof that it has made a genuine hit."
"Once in a while some production wins a special place in the affections of theatregoers and 'The Girl of My Dreams' is entitled to this distinction. John Hyams and Leila McIntyre may properly be termed favorites and the music and songs pleased the house last night as thoroughly as on the first visit.""The chorus plays a prominent part. It is a youthful aggregation that sings and dances with a vim and sprightliness that are refreshing.""Miss McIntyre sings Dr. Tinkle Tinker of Old Toytown" with imitable charm. Mr. Hyams plaintively relates that he "Tried So Hard to Be Good," and it is also set forth melodiously that "What's Sauce for the Gander is Sauce for the Goose." There are many other songs."Mr. Hyams was called before the curtain last night to give a speech, in response to the vociferous expressions of appreciation.""The Girl of My Dreams" will be at Macauley's tonight and tomorrow night with Saturday matinee."Tonight the Louisville and Chicago

One Week Before Players Arrive

A little more than a week and the Bourbonites will be out in force to get themselves in condition for the base ball season which will open in this city on May 1. The Paris players are scheduled to report in this city on April 11 to begin practice and according to President Bacon who has been in communication with Manager Lewis in regard to the players he has signed, a grander bunch was never assembled for spring practice.Altogether there are twenty-two men under contract. While in Cincinnati last week Mr. Bacon saw Billy Kuhman the popular third sacker of last years pennant winners, who has not yet signed a contract and it is probable that in the next few days he will sign up for the season. Jimmy Hauser and Danny Harrell, also two of last years' team who have not signed have been communicated with and the local management hopes to have them in the fold before the season opens.The regular season will open in Paris on Wednesday May 1, with Winchester. On May 2 Paris goes to Winchester; on May 3 and 4 Paris in Frankfort and on May 5 Maysville comes to Paris.There will be twelve Sunday games played in Paris and six away. Of the latter three will be in Lexington, two in Maysville and one in Frankfort.Of the twelve games played on Sunday in Paris five will be with Winchester, four with Richmond, two with Maysville and one with Frankfort.The season will consist of 130 games, and there will be five holiday games played on the Paris grounds.There will be some interesting preliminary games played on the Paris grounds, the first being on Sunday, April 14, with the strong Weidemann club of Newport.On Wednesday, April 17, Transylvania club of Lexington, will come to Paris for a tryout. On Saturday and Sunday, April 20 and 21, the Climax club of Cincinnati, will contest with the locals. Later dates are being arranged with State University and Georgetown and Louisville clubs.

NOTES.

Maysville has secured Pitcher Eddie Sanford from the Louisville American Association club. Sanford is from Rising Sun, Ind., and is a cousin of the great Amos Rusie.The Winchester team is on a deal with owner Grayson, of the Louisville club for the purchase of Snyder, a pitcher; Schnieder, a catcher, and Wynn, an outfielder. The deal has not yet been closed.Another shortstop, formerly in the Blue Grass League who stands a good chance to gain a berth in the majors is Scott, who in 1910 was shortstop for the Paris team and sold by them to the Flint, Mich., club in the South Michigan League and this season drafted by the St. Louis Nationals.
Scott is now training with St. Louis and it is said that he will be kept as first utility fielder.

Commanderies Assigned to Quarters.

One of the busiest committees of those appointed recently to look after the details of the Knights Templar Conclave to be held in this city, May 29-30, is the Committee on Quarters.
During the past few days a number of requests have been received for assignments to quarters by various commanderies throughout the State with the result that they have been readily filled by the committee.Six years ago when the Grand Commandery met in this city, quarters were obtained in a number of the private homes, and when the meeting is held here this year such will be the case again. Chairman M. H. H.
Davis, of the Executive Committee, has received notice from a number of citizens stating that the doors of their homes will be thrown open to the Knights and ladies for their entertainment during the conclave.In the next few weeks it is the hope of the Quarters Committee to have every commandery in the State which intends to attend the conclave assigned to quarters. From the fact that the accommodations are limited in this city it will be necessary to assign the remaining commanderies to private quarters, and from the large number that usually attend on such occasions, the people of Paris should come forward unhesitatingly and extend to the visitors unlimited hospitality.The Quarters Committee, of which Dr. F. L. Lapsley is Chairman, requests that all who can accommodate visitors, communicate with them immediately, that all requests for quarters to come in from now until all are accommodated. During the past week the following commanderies have been assigned to quarters:Louisville Commandery No. 1 at Miss Flora Hill, Main and Twelfth street.Maysville Commandery No. 10 at Mrs. Samantha Wall's, in White Addition.Ashland Commandery No. 28 at dition.Richmond Commandery No. 19, at Injured by Fall from Buggy.

George Reynold, aged about 19 years, suffered painful injuries Sunday night by a fall from a buggy when his horse, becoming frightened, ran away, throwing him across a wheel. The accident occurred in front of the residence of Mr. J. T. Judy in Millersburg about 8:30 o'clock.Dr. C. G. Daugherty, of this city, who was accompanied by Mr. John Wiggins and Mr. Allie Perkins, was passing in his car enroute to Millersburg when the accident occurred. Dr.
Daugherty was driving his machine at a low rate of speed when he noticed the approach of Reynold, who was driving to one side of the road. After the machine had passed according to Dr. Daugherty, the horse began to kick and plunge, and from the fact that one of the traces was off the driver was unable to control the animal.In his efforts to get out of the buggy Reynold was thrown across the wheel and sustained an injury to his abdomen, which while very painful is not thought to be serious. The occupant of the automobile went to the assistance and carried him to the home of Mr. Judy, rendering all the assistance possible before the arrival of Dr. W. V. Huffman to whose home the injured man was removed at a later hour. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Webb Reynold, of the Cane Ridge neighborhood, were notified about 11 o'clock Sunday night.According to the statement of Dr.
Daugherty he can in no wise be held responsible for the accident, as at the time he was driving up a hill at a low rate of speed, and noticing the approach of the horse lowered the speed almost stopping the machine. He said the horse showed no signs of fright when he was passing but he had since learned the animal was unruly and the night before had become frightened at various objects along the road and attempted to run away when one of the traces became unfastened.
Reynold will be removed to his home near Cane Ridge as soon as his condition will permit.

IS ALWAYS SOME CELEBRITY

Nobody Ever Recalls That in Previous Incarnation He Was a Hum-ble Person.

Dr. Julia Sears, head of the "New Thought School," says: "There are enough people on the planet today who remember one or more of their incarnations to make it a certainty that re-incarnation is a positive fact."

All right, doctor; we'll add this to our list of positive facts, which is already become somewhat unwieldy. Still, there is a question which has been puzzling us a good while, and we now make bold to ask: Why is it that, among all those people who remember one or more of their incarnations, not one can remember being an hod carrier, an undertaker's assistant, or an office boy in a soap factory? There is a strong tendency to run toward royal families, court musicians, and philosophers. Two or three persons can distinctly remember having been Joan of Arc, and the number of reincarnated Napoleons and Louis Four-teenth is growing all the time. But the man we are anxious to meet is the chap who can remember with pleasure his incarnation as the brawny "white wings" who pushed the scoop around the arena of the Roman Coliseum after the show was over and the animals retired, or the employee of the Imperial Health Department whose duty it was to descend into the Cloaca Maxima when it got clogged.

Another New Thought which comes at this moment is in connection with the statement of Dr. Sears that she was the Italian singer Marsina 400 years ago, was bitterly discontented, and now she longs to sing and cannot. There's matter for rumination in this. We shall hurry away now to tell the young woman in the apartment adjoining ours that the reason she longs to sing, or thinks she can sing, and cannot, is because she had a sweet pipe several hundred years ago and didn't make the most of it.—Puck.

SHE PICKED THE WRONG MAN

Woman With Prominent Jaw Did Not Get the Seat She So Evi-dently Desired.

She had a jaw that somehow reminded one of the cowcatcher on a locomotive—perhaps because it was always somewhat in advance of her countenance. Also there was a look of determination in her eyes, and it was evident, from the manner in which she elbowed other passengers aside, that she had no desire to be regarded as a shrinking violet. Yet she was rather good looking, and she was dressed in such a manner as to indicate that she was free from the necessity of practicing economy. After she had fought her way into the car she looked at the men who were occupying seats and then stationed herself in front of a smallish, gray-haired gentleman whose expression was kind and even lamblike.

The woman engaged his attention by kicking his toes. He curled his feet back under the seat and continued to read his paper. Then she "hemmed" loudly and bumped against his knees. He looked up at her, indulged in a sigh of weariness and tried to make room for her by crowding closely to the woman who sat at the left of him. She declined to budge, however, and the old gentleman again turned his attention to his paper.

Exasperated by such ungallant behavior on his part, the woman with the decisive jaw said in tones that in no wise suggested the haunting melody of a tinkling brook:

"I suppose I'll have to stand all the way home. I've heard of men who had the decency to get up when the cars were crowded, but I guess they're all dead."

"Madam," the little old gentleman mildly remarked, "I would give you my seat, but I'm saving it for a lady."

Centenary of Moscow Campaign.

One hundred years ago Napoleon set out on his campaign to Moscow, and it is perhaps only natural that Moscow and Russia generally should be eager to celebrate the centenary of a campaign which was so disastrous to the invaders. Already preparations are being made in Moscow to open the 1812 museum, and an immense number of objects relating to the campaign have been collected. The centenary has already been celebrated by a concert, which revived the marches and military airs of both armies, and some of these, according to the Debats, are most interesting and curious. More interesting still, as likely to recall the events of that year, will be the visits that are to be paid to the battlefields and the ceremonies that are to take place there.

Taking No Chances.

"Say, Cohn, do you know a nice girl with lots of money for me to marry?" "Yes, I know several and I got pictures here. Now here's a picture of Bessie Scheinberg who has three thousand dollars. And here's one of Rosie Mutzenstein who has six thousand dollars and one of Helen Goldbery who has a gold watch all paid for, three thousand dollars in the bank and I think I can fix it so you can live with her folks and it won't cost you anything for board."

"Oh, that's nothing for me. I want a girl with some real money."

"Oh, at least $12,000 to $15,000."

"I got one for you. Sarah Weisenstein has got $12,000."

"That sounds good. Let's see her picture."

"Oh, no; after $10,000 no pictures."

—Lambs should be weaned when about four months old. The time of weaning, however, depends largely upon when the lambs were dropped. Very late lambs should be weaned at a younger age than lambs dropped early in the year. Lambs allowed to run with their mothers until the middle of summer do not make such good gains as those weaned earlier, nor does it give a chance for their dams to recuperate for the breeding season in the fall. As soon as the lambs are weaned they should be placed in a pasture as far away from their dams as possible. Rape or a mixture of oats, peas and vetches are excellent crops to supplement the ordinary pastures during the summer. Great care must be taken however not to turn the sheep in upon the rape when hungry for the rape is very damp and these condition are prone to cause bloating and scouring.

Dopers Active in Washington.

Drug makers and druggists' agents appeared before the pure food board in Washington and asked for permission in certain cases to take the skull and cross bones sign off of bottles containing poisonous preparations. With the death's head label off the bottle the druggists might do more business. Imagine the chagrin of the dopers when in the midst of their argument, in walked Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, who resigned from the public service because his opposition to the doping of foods was not in sympathy with the Taft administration. When Dr. Wiley alluded to the petitioners as "dopers" it looked like a free for all fight. When objection was made to the epithet "dopers," Dr. Wiley consented to withdraw that term if he could substitute "manufacturers of poison" in its place. The poison manufacturers angrily demanded to know whom Dr. Wiley represented and he replied: "One American citizen, and I expect to be here after."

Acquired Significance.

"You disapprove of my theory," said the excited agitator. "Therefore you refuse to attach any importance to it." "Of course," replied Senator Sorghum, "why should I? The only importance most unpleasant theories have is what thoughtless people rush in and attach to them."

County Board Elects Secretary.

The Bourbon County Board of Education met yesterday morning in the office of County Superintendent Miss Mabel Robbins and selected Mr. T. W. Current as secretary to fill the vacancy in that office caused by the death of Mr. Fielding F. Hurst, of Millersburg. The full board was present, but little business was transacted. The Board ordered the sale of a portion of the grounds in the rear of the school house at Shawhan, to the Louisville and Nashville railroad for the sum of $400 and Miss Robbins and Mr. Current were appointed a committee to execute a deed.

The following resolutions of respect upon the death of Mr. F. F. Hurst, a member of the board, were adopted: Since Death has removed from our midst F. F. Hurst, our worthy and esteemed Secretary, who has so ably officiated in that capacity since August, 1910. Therefore be it resolved: That the removal of such a splendid citizen, public spirited man, and one who held the respect of all, leaves a vacancy and shadow, that will be deeply realized by the members of this Board of Education and by the people of the community.

Resolved, That we extend to the bereft family our sincere sympathy in the loss of a faithful husband and devoted father.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in a local paper, that they be spread upon the minutes of this meeting, and a copy be sent to the family of our departed member.

The commissioners awarded Mr. Marsh an amount equal to about $1,850 for his land and for damages. By the verdict of the jury Mr. Marsh gets $527 for his land and $1,472 damages.

Killed in Mine Disaster.

Mr. Easton McClure, of West Liberty, Morgan County, was killed in the mine disaster, which occurred at the Jed Mines in West Virginia, more than a week ago, the news of which was received by relatives in this county last week.

At the time the accident in which more than a score lost their lives, Mr. McClure was employed as an engineer in the mine and suffered the fate of a large number of his companions.

Mr. McClure was the youngest son of Dr. B. F. McClure, of near Little Rock, this county, and a brother of Mr. P. L. McClure, of that neighborhood. In company with Undertaker Hiram Ewing, of Carlisle, Dr. P. L. McClure went to identify the body, returning with it to West Liberty, where the remains were interred Saturday morning. The elder McClure met the body at Morehead, the mother being unable to go. Mr. McClure is survived by a wife and one child.

Vaudeville Season at the Grand Opens Monday.

The management of the Paris Grand Opera House announces the opening of the vaudeville season of 1912 next Monday, April 8. They promise that this will be the best season in the history of the house as far as excellence of the acts is concerned. The Grand is one of many houses comprising the Gus Sun circuit, and Mr. Sun since last season has secured a majority of the best acts on the vaudeville stage, most of which will be seen in Paris during the coming season.

The vaudeville bill will be changed every other night, and the moving pictures, which will be up to date, will be changed nightly. The first performance will start promptly at 7:45. Two full shows will be given nightly. The Grand during the last few days has been given a thorough cleaning and overhauling.

Farm Train Visits Paris.

Although a slow drizzling rain was falling when the agricultural train reached Paris Friday morning a crowd estimated at five hundred was on hand to meet it. The train arrived at 9 o'clock after a night spent in Cynthiana and immediately upon its arrival President H. S. Barker, of Kentucky State University mounted a baggage truck and welcomed the crowd on board the "farm special."

Prof. Geo. W. Chapman, of the Paris City School, Prof. W. L. Yerkes and Prof. E. M. Costello, the two latter being at the head of private schools, dismissed their schools for the purpose of allowing the pupils to witness the exhibits and hear the lectures. A noticeable feature was that every pupil of the pupil school took notes on the subject that was of the most interest to them and upon which they will be required to write an essay.

The lecture of Miss Nell Knowles on Home Economics, was one of great interest. Prof. James E. Wing lectured to about fifty boys on the culture of alfalfa and soil fertility. Miss Anby Chan lectured on domestic science. Profs. Hooper, Smith and Reed also spoke during the sojourn of the farm special here. M. A. Scovill, head of the Agricultural Department of State University, joined the special in this city and will be on board for the remainder of the trip. The train left Paris at 11:45 for Winchester.

Poor Horse Show.

The annual horse show which has always characterized April court, was this year one of the poorest in point of the number of stallions on exhibition. For the past two or three years the exhibit has been held at the Bourbon Fair Grounds, but yesterday the small number of stallions were exhibited on the public square. The stallions on exhibition were as follows:

Confident, Percheron draft and harness stallion, owned by R. B. Hutchcraft.
Hero, Percheron stallion, owned by H. C. Clifford.
Mingo Chief, owned by F. H. Burris.
Roxy, Percheron draft stallion, owned by C. R. Walls.
Percheron King, saddle stallion owned by Young Bros.
Emeraldine, combined stallion, owned by Reynolds Letton, proprietor of Lettonia Stock Farm.
Locanda 2-02; Peter Billiken 2-16-1-4 and Wiggins 2-19-1-2, owned by W. A. Bacon, proprietor of Maplehurst Stock Farm.

April Court.

April Court was one of the largest in many months, a large crowd being in attendance. Owing to the approach of the season when work is most desired the number of mules offered were far above the average court day offerings, it being estimated that upwards of 100 were on the market. Prices ranged from $175 to $225 per head. Caywood & McClintock sold to Carl Williams 2 head for $425; to Chas. Thompson 5 head $1,055, to J. C. Bryan, 1, $200; S. L. Wethers and son 1, $190; to J. B. Wood 2, $350; to Mrs. Steve Houston 2, $350; to Mr. Grigsby 1, $180; to H. C. Clifford 2, $430; to Frank Clay 1, $150; 1 mare to John Brophy, $200. They purchased from D. H. Thompson 2 mules for $300; 1 from Geo. Mays, $195; 2 from S. L. Wethers and son $175; 2 from Carlton Williams, $410; 1 from John Larme $225. A few horses were offered. No cattle were offered at the pers of M. J. Murphy & Co.
